

Location

Dusit Thani College is situated in a quiet suburb in the South Eastern area of Bangkok, making it far enough away from the busy downtown area to provide an environment conducive to study, but still within easy reach, via local public transport. The college is only 25 minutes from Suvarnabhumi Airport and provides easy access to the highway to Thailand's Eastern coast, where you can relax or be entertained at the plentiful resorts and tourist attractions, such as Pattaya and Rayong.

Nearby to the college is one of Bangkok's largest shopping malls, providing a wealth of local and international restaurants and entertainment, as well as supermarkets stocking many of the home comforts that you may require. It is also very close to Rama IX Park, which is the city's largest park, featuring beautiful pavilions, a large lake and expansive gardens, as well as plenty of spots for exercise. It's the perfect place to unwind.

Accommodation and Lifestyle

Located conveniently nearby to the college are many accommodation options, depending on your budget and lifestyle. From the very start, you will be assigned a study counselor who will assist you with all aspects of your stay and studies. From finding the appropriate accommodation for you to your travel and visa arrangements, from academic guidance to knowledge of local facilities and attractions, they will always be on hand to provide support for you both on and off the college campus.

Bangkok is synonymous with nightlife and entertainment. So if you do have energy left after your college work, why not enjoy your leisure time. The local neighborhood has many popular nightspots and there is a young and hip feel throughout the area. The college has over two thousand students living nearby and so it is very easy to enjoy the entertainment options together with them.

Why Thailand?

Bangkok, locally called 'the city of Angels' is ranked the number 1 destination globally in terms of tourist arrivals. Part of the reason for this is that Thailand has a famous reputation for its gracious, elegant and sincere hospitality. Because of this, the hospitality industry is growing significantly and offers the latest cutting edge hotel and restaurant concepts. Through its location, Bangkok serves as a hub, providing easy access to all of South East Asia and beyond. Thai food is world famous for its exotic flavours, fragrances and health giving properties and is abundant and cheap everywhere in Bangkok. Thailand offers a great tropical climate all year round.

The cost of living in Thailand is very affordable and so offers a comfortable standard of life, attracting a growing number of foreign residents year on year.

All of these factors and more, serve to provide an amazing destination for you to not only further your hospitality education journey but to experience and immerse yourself in the truly unique Thai culture of hospitality.

Dusit Thani College Study Abroad Programme (SAP)

DTC's SAP is a personalised programme, which means it is tailored to the needs and ambitions of the individual student.

The student can opt for a series of modules and courses from either the IHRM or the ICRM programme or even both. DTC's SAP study counselors will help you in shaping the programme for either one semester or one academic year. This will be done in dialogue with your school in order to facilitate the transfer of credits earned during your stay at DTC.

The Study Abroad Programme can not only provide you with a valuable study experience but can also include opportunities to spend a semester completing an internship assignment at one of Dusit International's hotels. This will equip you with practical experience in the operations of a hotel providing international class service with the unique Thai graciousness.
